GEORGIA LOSES RAILWAY TAX.

U. S. Supreme Court Decision on Leased Roads Hits State Treasury.

Large sums of taxes were lost by the state of Georgia when the Supreme Court of the United States decided yesterday that the state could not require leasing railroads to pay an ad valorem tax on the property of railroads, exempt from taxation, and leased to them.
This decision was announced in a case in which the state sought to require the Central of Georgia to pay an ad valorem tax on the property on the Augusta and Savannah and portions of the Southwestern, which were exempted from taxation in the original charters of these two roads.

"Charter Parties" Tax Invalid.
The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday held that a tax, as levied in the Spanish war revenue act, on leases of vessels known as "charter parties," was invalid, because in violation of the constitutional prohibition against "obstructing by any burden of taxation the process of exportation." The court allowed recovery from the government of such taxes, whether paid under protest or not.

The Eddy
Refrigerator
"In Its 68th Year"

THINK what this means in the selection of a refrigerator, SIXTY-EIGHT YEARS of experience in building and perfecting a refrigerator that will meet the requirements of keeping food pure and sanitary with a minimum consumption of ice. The "Eddy" is the solution of the refrigerator problem.

In improving the Eddy Refrigerator from year to year the makers have neglected no opportunity to add to its utility as a preserver of perishables or to the convenience of the user. But have resolutely turned away from the frequent temptation to add "fussy" features that might strike the fancy of an occasional customer, while in reality detracting from the real worth of the refrigerator.

Those who have used the Eddy in their homes know that it "wears well." It never disappoints. It is a refrigerator of sterling worth. It is right "all the way through."

Wooltex Tailored Suits

FOR Distinguished Easter Service

THE more important the occasion, the more vital it is to avail yourself of the superior elegance of Wooltex garments. The woman of unlimited means who goes to her custom tailor for her Easter suit seldom has any interest in the latest whim of fashion, but the features that command her largegest interest are exactly the qualities which distinguish Wooltex suits from the usual ready-to-wear garment.

Here are refinement of style, elegance of materials, thorough and careful workmanship, graceful and becoming lines, with a permanency that is secured by careful hand-tailoring at all the vital points.

The picture illustrates a handsome adaptation of a new Premet Paris model. The jacket is cut away in front showing vest of contrasting silk, and is slashed at the sides. Materials are gabardine, poplin and shepherd checks.

Price, $37.50.

Other Wooltex suits at $25.00 to $45.00.
Wooltex coats $16.50 to $25.00.

You'll appreciate Wooltex garments more when you try them on, and most of all after several months of wear.
